

Event Sponsorship Opportunity

Event: Oregon Brownfields Conference
Presented by: Oregon Business Development Department
Oregon Department of Environmental Quality
Northwest Environmental Business Council (NEBC)
Center for Creative Land Recycling
Date: April 6 & 7, 2010
Location: Salem Conference Center, Salem, OR

Description: This conference will provide an exceptional learning and networking opportunity for those working to make contaminated properties economically viable for reuse. The Oregon Brownfields Conference is designed to target the educational needs of brownfields practitioners – from long-time brownfields professionals to those just entering into the process of transforming old contaminated sites into productive properties. The theme “Sleeves Rolled Up” reflects the hands-on, practical nature of this year’s event.

Audience: This conference is designed for the full range of participants in redevelopment efforts, including:

- ◆ Local government & economic development staff
- ◆ Land developers and real estate agents
- ◆ Environmental engineers, consultants, and remediation experts
- ◆ Financers, lawyers, and insurance providers
- ◆ Environmental regulators
- ◆ Property owners

Content: Session offerings are provided for both experienced professionals and newcomers to the concept. Topics to be covered include:

- ◆ Identifying project opportunities
- ◆ Performing due diligence
- ◆ Understanding liability
- ◆ Negotiating the deal
- ◆ Financing and funding options
- ◆ Writing winning grants
- ◆ Insurance cost recovery
- ◆ Engineering & institutional controls
- ◆ Building the right team
- ◆ Integrated planning for brownfields
- ◆ Estates, trusts & orphans
- ◆ Brownfields in relation to Superfund
- ◆ Vapor intrusion update
- ◆ Shades of green on brownfields
